

2008 Scholarship and Fellowship Winners

WOST Faculty Summer Fellowships ($4000 each)

Lynn Voskuil (English) "Horticulture and Imperialism: The Garden Spaces of Victorian England"

Samantha Kwan (Sociology) "Contested Meanings about Body, Health, and Weight: Frame Resonance, Strategies of Action, and the Uses of Culture"

Faculty Travel Grant ($500)

Guillermo de los Reyes, for travel to a conference to give a paper entitled "Gender, Performance and Nationalism: A Ritualistic Approach to Beauty Pageants in Mexico"

WOST Dissertation fellowship ($20,000)

Erin Graham (History) "Bordering Chaos: Mothers, Daughters and Neoliberalism"

Shuart Fellowships ($2500 each)

Undergrad: Yi Rong Waters (Sociology) Elizabeth Smith Chenoweth Undergraduate Fellowship

Graduate: Lauran Kerr (History) Maud Smith Paddock Graduate Fellowship

Natalie Garza (History) Blanche Espy Chenoweth Graduate Fellowship

Patricia A. Eichhorn Endowed Scholarship for a Returning Student ($500)

Two winners: Nadia Kalinchuk and Karen Glover

Williams History Essay Prize ($250)

Kristen Contos (History PhD student) "No Longer Entitled: Adolescent Pregnancy in Public Schools Before and After Title IX"

Friends of Women's Studies Undergraduate essay prize ($250)

Nisha Campbell, "Aphra Behn" (English)

Friends of Women's Studies Graduate essay prize ($250)

Eric Heraly (English) "'I Could Not Contain My Contradictions': Deconstructionist Strategies in Emily Fox Gordon's Mockingbird Years"